DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
DIVISION OF MOTOR VEHICLES
SUBSEQUENT OFFENDER IGNITION INTERLOCK PROGRAM
Participant Requirements

The Subsequent Offender Ignition Interlock Device (IID) Program is authorized by 21 Del. C. §4177 G. The following are conditions of the program as specified in 21 Del. C. §4177 G (h)(2). Each subsequent offender is required to abide by these conditions through the duration of the program.

A subsequent offender shall lose the privilege of having a Subsequent Offender IID license for failure to comply with any of the following:

1. The subsequent offender shall abide by the terms of the subsequent offender's lease with the service provider as approved by the Division of Motor Vehicles.
2. The subsequent offender shall comply with Division of Motor Vehicle regulations concerning IID license restrictions.
3. The subsequent offender shall not attempt, nor allow or cause an attempt to bypass, tamper with, disable or remove the IID or its wires in connection.
4. The subsequent offender shall not operate a vehicle without an approved device, or possessing a registration card and a subsequent offender IID license which complies with subsection (f) of this section.
5. The subsequent offender shall not violate any section of this title relating to the use, possession or consumption of alcohol or intoxicating substances;
6. The subsequent offender shall accumulate no more than 5 points per year while participating in the program.
7. The subsequent offender shall continue to meet all eligibility criteria identified in subsection (f) (1) of this section.
8. The subsequent offender shall provide satisfactory proof to the Division of Motor Vehicles that an approved IID has been installed.
9. The subsequent offender shall not fail to or refuse to take random re-test provided by the device.
10. The subsequent offender shall keep scheduled appointments with the Division and the service provider.
11. The subsequent offender shall be driven to the service provider by a licensed driver for installation of the IID equipment.
12. The subsequent offender shall not cause nor allow another individual to bypass or attempt to bypass the device.
13. The subsequent offender shall not fail to pay any and all fines whatsoever assessed during participation in the program pursuant to this title.
14. The subsequent offender shall successfully complete the course of instruction and/or program of rehabilitation.
15. The subsequent offender shall comply with any participation regulations implemented by the Division of Motor Vehicles pursuant to this paragraph.
16. The subsequent offender will receive written confirmation for approval of the ignition interlock device. The device shall not be installed without prior approval from this Division.

Non-compliance with the above listed requirements will automatically disqualify subsequent offender from eligibility for the IID license. The offender will still be required to maintain the Ignition Interlock Device on all vehicle(s) registered in the name of the offender for the balance of the revocation period.

Non-compliance may also include: Failure to keep scheduled monitoring appointments, repeated lockouts, unauthorized power disconnects, failure to respond to Division inquiries into program participation, and failure to maintain valid insurance coverage on the vehicle.

I certify that I have read the Conditions of Participation above, specified in 21 Del. C. § 4177 G (f)(2). I will abide by these conditions and understand that failure to abide by these conditions will result in termination from the program and loss of all driving privileges for the complete duration of the revocation period.
